“ What can one say to a family that has lost a loved one. I can tell you that He was a good person and a great officer but then everyone who knew Jason knows that. So I will tell you that Jason still lives, He just moved away to Heaven and is waiting on all of us. I know that all of you are hurting but please know that JESUS said that a comforter would be with us to help. JESUS, we ask that you put your arms around this family and show them your love and mercy. Provide their every need and for this we give you our Father all the praise and Glory. In the precious name of our Savior Jesus. Amen.

“ Jason (mini me), I'll forever miss you brother. I have so many memories, I don't know where to start. My husband died this past January, Jason called me at least three times a week to check on me (if not more). Jason was truly a friend and a very caring person!

Always bringing miss Kinsley to see aunt dino AND uncle bubbles.

I'm going to miss you checking on me Jason, but I promise to look after Ashley and Kinsley as you did me brother!! Give my husband a big ole hug for me and rip mini me!!!

Will always love and miss you,

Your neighbor, friend and sister in Christ!!! DeAnna McCay

“ My memories of Jason are when he was a child. He used to play with my children. He had the biggest smile and was so full of joy and mischief. Always running and playing. He will be missed and remembered not only today but forever in our hearts. Thank you for your service, Deputy Kellum.

“ Jason & Ashley, I will never forget the days you both opened your home to me and treated me like family. I enjoyed the four wheeling escapades, the great food, and playing with Rita. Ashley, since I've found out this tragedy I have been praying non-stop for you. God always proves Himself as the Rock on which we can stand.

“ I didn't have the pleasure of knowing Deputy Kellum in person , we had a phone friendship thru law enforcement. He was always polite, funny and easy to talk to. I retired last Friday and as I thought of all those I would thru phone friendship, Kellum was at the top of my list. I would always ask about his family and the tone in his voice would change. He was no longer a deputy but a husband and a father who loved his family with everything he had and as soon as that conversation ended, he was right back to Deputy Kellum with what I call the law enforcement tone. I am so very sorry to learn of his passing.he was and is a true gentleman

“ Jason I have so many memories of you. You are going to be missed. One memory I have, is the night you had to go home early so you could use "the restroom". While you were sitting at home relieving yourself, we got into a shootout in Village Green. We never let you live it down. I also remember one time you didnt latch your patrol car hood, and it flew up smashing your windshield. You were a good man. After your stroke, you weren't the same Jason. I hurt for you and I hurt for Ashley and Kinsley. I hope you found peace. I know you loved Ashley and Kinsley and you didnt know how to deal with it. I'll always love you buddy! Ashley you will always be a part of the family. Please if you need anything call. Mr. And Mrs. Kellum, your son was loved by many. My condolences for you and all your family. RIP J!

“ You gave me my first taste of police work in East Macon. Those conversations outside of the CID office often set the tone for my day. I am forever grateful. Hester 0495
