Offering sincere condolences, no doubt this is a difficult time for the family. May you put trust in the many promises our Heavenly Father says will soon come about and allow that wonderful hope to comfort you in the days ahead. (John 11:25; Ps. 37:29)

I met Mr Pat once when Cindy, Mrs Louise and I had planned to go to lunch. Mrs. Louise said Mr Pat wanted to go and I said sure. I was not going to tell him no, I know from one being sick that when they want to go somewhere, they want to go. I am so glad he came. It was OK with me that he just wanted a beer to drink. It was OK if he talked a great deal or very little. I found him funny, entertaining and more of a gentleman that some men I know. Thank you Mr Pat for the memories of a great day with great friends.....
