“ Memories, Memories I have held onto for a lifetime of my Uncle Dick.

His kite making was amazing to me when I was really young, a box kite made out of newspaper and had a very long tail. He talked to me of his homing pigeons and training them to come home. I was amazed that they always came back The service he freely gave of himself for our country. A miracle, was given to all his family that he survived the sacrifice.

When he brought all his family to live in Texas and he stayed a while with us before he got an apartment over in Richland Hills. That's when I first met Susan, Lynette and Lavinia when they were just babies. (changed a few of your diapers girls.) Uncle Dick didn't didn't like my boyfriend and told me about good boys and bad boys and I needed to be careful of my choice. Lots of laughing with us all. He shared some of his fishing tips with me, boy did he have the tackle!! I am happy I got to go fishing with him. That was when I came with his big brother Walter (my Dad) for a visit.

The talks we had when I was last there were funny and some serious, and we enjoyed our talk about the Lord. I am thankful of those times and I will cherish my memories of my favorite Uncle.
