“ I still can't believe your gone Allen. We have a lot of memories that will always be with us. It was nice to see you the other weekend when you came for wood to grill. My last words before you left was baby y'all be careful on them damn things . Oh yea was your response. We laughed at Steve hahah I loved you like my on son. My heart is broken. I asked god why when you are needed in so many ways to be here . I even asked him to take me and leave you. He had his own plans for you son. You will always be in my heart I will always hear you voice you saying " I'm Pist ! haha I never thought after you left that day I would never see you again . We are here for your family son rest now. Not a day will go by and I not think of you .....

“ We miss you so much right now Bubba! You were the best brother ever and also the best dad to those boys. I'd do anything to hear your voice and see your smile right now but I know you smiling down on us from heaven right now. Just remember to slap me in the head every now and then when I'm being stupid like you always did. I love you more than life itself.
