“ My dear Cousin Audrey was a sweet presence in my life for as long as I can remember.

Since learning of her passing, the old hymn "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" has been running through my head. It's the song my Dad played at Audrey's Mom's funeral so many years ago. I picture Audrey, happy and free from pain, on that beautiful isle reunited with her Mom and Dad, Mamaw and Papaw, and all those she loved and who loved her.

“ When Mom was about to give you some words of wisdom or tell you something that you needed to pay attention to, it always began with; "Now listen to me"... I will forever remember, miss and cherish those words from her....love you Mom.
