“ My mother, Ellen Bell Dean, and I were sorry to read this about Betty. We have tried to contact her and were concerned for her health since we hadn't heard back from her. She & my mother are close to the same age & had been emailing & communicating about geneology. She had mentioned she would instruct family to send my mother the research she had done on the Bell family. I did a search & noticed White Columns & our hearts saddened because we knew it was her. Betty and my mother shared the same great, great grandfather. It is complicated but they figured it out. Mama and Betty became friends as they did their geneology research. We will miss her. My mother turned 86 in Nov. Please email my mother at aellie@webtv.net or me at Deanomite@cox.net. Again, so sorry but hope she is okay now!
