

Betty Young

May 14, 1942 - December 16, 2025

Betty Hatfield Young, 83, of Gordon, passed away Tuesday, December 16, 2025. Funeral Services for Mrs. Betty Young will be conducted Friday, Dec. 19, 2025 at 2 PM in Ivey Baptist Church with Rev. Danny Young officiating. Interment will follow in Ramah Cemetery.

Daughter of the late Gean C. and Myrtle Loyd Hatfield and Father and Mother-in-law, Winfred and Georgia Lou Young, Mrs. Betty was a lifelong resident of Wilkinson County. She was married to her loving husband, G. W. for 64 years. She retired from Warner Robins Air Force Base as an Engine Manager for all aircraft on station. Mrs. Young was a member of Ivey Baptist Church and was a faithful servant to her Savior, Jesus Christ. She was instrumental in the development of the church sanctuary and fellowship hall and served as a Sunday school teacher and Church Hostess.

She was an active member of the Wilkinson County Historical Society along with her husband. Mrs. Betty was a quiet, gentle soul with a love for gardening and flowers. She loved to design many artful projects but Floristry was where she created many masterpieces that touched many lives.

Survivors include: Husband, George W. Young of Gordon; Daughters, Becky (Ed) Riley of Sandersville and Sonja Grube of Gordon; Brother, Lloyd Hatfield of Ivey. 4-Grandchildren, Will (Gina) Riley of Gordon, Alana (Zack) Hollis of Aiken, SC, Zachary (Christina) Grube of Gray and Hannah Grube of Ivey 7-Great Grandchildren, Mia, Waylon and Stetson Riley, Baylon and Emmett Hollis, Christopher and Laura Grube. Many Cousins also survive
