“ You were such an amazing woman. You were always here for me and I wish I could just be sitting on the back porch right now talking with you about anything and everything like we always used to. You were such a loving human being with a huge heart, who put the needs of the ones closest to her above her own at all times. I thank God for the bond that we had and every single time I got to hear your voice towards the end. We miss you so much Mema. We Love You. You will always be my Pooh Bear ❤️
