“ I always remember going to my Uncle Billy and house in Macon, Georgia growing up and him and his wife, my Aunt Vern always having a cold Yoo-hoo drink waiting for me. They would also cook the best southern food and we would all sit around eat and play cards, just enjoy each other’s company. The simple things. I love them both very much. Till we all meet again. I love you! 🍑

“ Wayne and family,
I am so sorry about Mr. Billy. He was always so kind to our family and I remember all the garden goodies he would send to my mom during the summer. When it got winter, your mom would make divinity and send to my dad. They both were wonderful people and now they are reunited again.

Aunt Judy and Family,
We are so sorry to learn that Billy passed away. He was a wonderful person, a true “southern gentleman”. We know you loved each other very much. Just keep those “precious memories” close in your heart.
