“ Dear Jan and Family,I am so sorry concerning Byron's death. I know you will miss him.You have been a wonderful wife to him, you took great care of him for a long time. You will be blessed because of that. I know your family will be a strength to you.Jan, just remember death is something that can't take away our memories. I know your all had some some great ones.Jan, a child of God will never face a circumstance that is bigger that His grace, which will never be depleted. When we are weak, He is strong.I am praying that you all will sense the sustaining presence of our Lord during this time.I Love you all,Angie and Wayne Edwards
