Our little part of the world growing up was we were all friends and neighbors. We went from house to house visiting and enjoying everyone's company. I hadn't seen Carlton since he sold his land on Hwy 57 where he would come and look after his place and animals. Then you would see him sitting on Cecil Landrum's porch or yard talking with other friends. Lillie was my best friend then. Things were simpler and less stressful. Barbara, I have you on prayer list and all other family members. Peace and Love.
