“ Catherine so blessed my life in so many ways. We met at Ela Campground in Bryson City, North Carolina. We lived next to each other and bonded right away. She was like a garden of sunflowers. Friends like Catherine are few and far between. I will always treasure having met her. Her smiles, laughter, and witty comments brightened the day. I will miss her ever so much. Carol Treiber

“ Johnny, Mike, Shelley & Holley,

I am so sorry to hear about Mrs. Cat. I sure remember making many trips to her house to order or pick up Tupperware. Every bit of Tupperware that is still in Momma's cabinet come from Mrs. Cat. A lot of my old pieces come from her as well. I also have memories when we all use to go camping yrs. ago. She was such a joy to have around and would keep us laughing. Heaven sure gained another Angel. Please know that you are in my thoughts & prayers.

“ Catherine was a dear friend, in Ela Campground in NC, for many years.

She had a great smile and sense of humor. She loved the neighborhood children, dogs & cats, and they adored her, as did her Don, family, friends, and her Lord.

May she rest in Peace.

Anticipating the day we are together in Eternity. 🌹

“ Prayers for peace and comfort while you prepare to send Ms. Cat home. I have so many memories up growing up with the Beck family. Meeting at "the path" to spend the day playing in the play house when we were little, going to the Christmas tree lightings and Sara going with us in the back of the blue mini van, Ms. Eva dropping us off at the pool all summer, playing softball as we got older, and then we grew up. I love you Holly and Shelley. Too many great memories!
