“ Christopher, Good Lord Son, it is unimaginable how much I miss you, I wish to hold you and hug you and just be with you. Just to spend time with you would change so many things for me. I have been told that our spirit (or soul) is weightless but my heart feels so awfully heavy and I know that yours does too. You were taken from me way way too soon. I have been patient waiting for everyone to decide that I am strong enough to see you and accept that to many of us you are God, I have accepted that as fact & having heard that every Christopher is a "Christ" and that is actually a fact that I can't really accept. Being on the cross is too much of a cross to bear. I am proud that you are Flying High and being the Great Spirit that you are. "I am that I am."
I love you Christopher.
