“ I would like to express my sincerest condolences to Chris’s family and friends.
I was introduced to “Chris” while working as a volunteer at the Museum of Aviation. He was a very kind person and really easy to talk to. Whenever I was going through anything that had me down or anything I may’ve been going through, Chris never failed to pray with me, for me and over me. His presence will be truly missed. May he be in the presence of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

“ I have know Chris for the better part of 10 years and he was so precious to me. I always looked forward to his visits. He was a very good person. An outstanding man of God. I will forever miss him asking anyone he saw, whether he was coming or going or whether the other person was coming or going, he always asked "Would you like a free bookmark?". He always tried to be a steward of God; always spreading the word. I pray he can finally rest in peace. We love you and miss you beyond words, Chris.

“ So sorry for your loss. Chris was a friend. I prepared his taxes for several years and during that time we became friends. We were both at Georgia Tech at the same time. I really enjoined Chris walking into my office. We always had things to talk about and eventually got around to his income tax return. He came by at other times just to visit.

“ Chris and I have been friends over 20 years. He is the kindest, most sincere man I’ve ever known. He went through life with a servant’s heart and made sure each person he came in contact with had the opportunity to learn about Jesus. Such a faithful servant in sharing the gospel. He was so excited and proud to become a member of the Gideons. I moved to a new job last year and there was a small camouflaged Gideon’s Bible left in a desk drawer of my new desk. I called Chris and let him know I was in the right place. He will be deeply missed by so many. He talked so lovingly about his parents, Mother and Daddy, when we would meet for lunch. He loved his dog Jake. Mr and Mrs Westbrook, I am so sorry you are having to go through this difficult time. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ C.W. was Truly a GREAT FRIEND to me. All of those school years(I would have failed geometry without his help in study hall, even though he disagreed), playing tennis, attending Georgia College, ALL of those Macon Braves and Bacon games, and ALL of our adventures together are TREASURED and CHERISHED! Chris was an EXTREMELY INTELLIGENT MAN, yet very HUMBLE. He LOVED the LORD with all of his heart, and it showed in his life. My prayers are with Miss Gwen and Mr. Claud, Eric, Craig, and ALL of the WESTBROOK FAMILY. May you all take comfort in KNOWING CHRIS NOW WALKS WITH JESUS, FOREVER AND EVER!!!! REST IN PEACE, C.W.

“Chris was always a ray of sunshine and a pure joy to be around. His love for the Lord was evident in all he did. He was always eager to share the good news with everyone he crossed paths with and share about the Lords goodness on him in his own life. I received many thoughtful prayer cards and thank you cards over the past several years. He hade a way about him that always made you feel loved and appreciated. He was a kind man with a gentle spirit. He will be missed. Praying for his family and his many friends, that the Lord will send peace and comfort.

“ Chris has been a good friend and coworker of mine since 1985. He was the type of person that would do everything he could to help someone in need and never expect anything in return. In addition to helping his friends he volunteered to work at the Museum of Aviation and the homeless shelter in Macon. Mr. and Mrs. Westbrook and family, I am so sorry for the loss of your son. His presence brought light and joy into many lives. During this difficult time, please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ I am deeply saddened by this news. I was Chris’ “boss” at Daybreak where he volunteered every Monday afternoon. Chris was such a joy at our check-in table. In 2023, he was awarded Friendliest Face at our appreciation party. He frequently told me how he had a friend frame his certificate and attach the sweet words I wrote about him so he could display it. He told me it meant the world to him and I told him he meant the world to me. I will miss his beautiful smile, encouraging words, letters of appreciation, and overall joyful presence. Enjoy your forever slice of cake in heaven, buddy! Until I see you again.

I am praying for his family, the precious mother and father he spoke so frequently about, the family at the Aviation Museum where he also volunteered, us at Daybreak, his Gideon friends, his church family, and all of us who will mourn his absence on earth.

C.W. was the GREATEST FRIEND anyone could have ever asked for in their life. We first met at the age of eight(third grade), and the rest is history. All of those school years(he would never admit it, but I would not have passed geometry without his help), playing tennis and attending college together, those MANY Macon Braves and Bacon games, and all of the wonderful adventures we shared. He was TRULY a MAN of GOD, for it was seen daily in his life. My prayers go out to Miss Gwen, Mr.Claud, Eric, Craig, and all of the Westbrook family. Please take comfort in knowing that CHRIS NOW WALKS WITH JESUS! THIS, I KNOW!!!!!! PRAISE THE LORD!!! REST IN PEACE, DEAR FRIEND!!!!

“ Such an amazing man! I've only know Chris for a short about of time, ever since I joined the Gideons last year. But the one thing I have no doubt about, it's that he absolutely loved the LORD! I loved his devotionals at our Saturday breakfasts. I loved his unwavering love for Jesus and his desire to point everyone he met to the living grace of God. I would've loved to have been there when Jesus rested His arms around Chris and said to him, "well done, my good and faithful servant!!" The peace I have today is that one day, I'll meet Chris again. I may miss him while I am here, but knowing that he is in the presence of God, at this moment, is an absolute treasure to me today.

Love you, Chris. You have been a huge impact in my faith with God!!

“ I have never met a kinder person than Chris. He was quick to show his care and appreciation, always asking how he could pray for someone. I still have a little ceramic angel that he gave me 20 years ago. He was a pleasure to know and to work with. I share in the deep sadness of your family's loss.

We are still in shock that Chris is gone! Chris has been a close friend and a wingman to me and my family since 1997. I still remember when I was on my Reserve Duty to Hong Kong for 30 days, He kept me informed on activities at RAFB. He was passionate about attending all of the scheduled annual luncheons with our RAFB friends at Sonny's BBQ. Our sincere condolences and prayers to Mr. And Mrs. Westbrook and family. He will be missed. His favorite statement was, "It's good day to have a good day!" Again, our prayers and thoughts are with you at this time.

I have so many fond memories of Chris in his early years when babysitting him and his brothers and later as a teenager at our church. He was a gentle soul who loved the Lord with all his heart. May all the wonderful memories bring the family comfort and peace during this difficult time. 🙏❤️. Kathy Pope

Gwen & Claude, Eric, & Craig,

*I just saw Chris' obituary and I am so sorry for your loss. I remember him as a child at church and he had such a sweet spirit. Your whole family meant a lot to me in my younger years and are some of my best memories. I'm so sorry I lost touch with all of you. Chris had a truly beautiful soul. And he had a servant's heart.
I'm praying for all of you that God gives you peace at this difficult time and heals your hearts. Chris lives on with our Savior. We can be assured of this through our faith in Jesus Christ.
Love and blessings to all of you.*
