“ Dean was more a big brother to me than a cousin we were as close as any brothers ever were. I'm having trouble imagining a world with him not in it. He was my best friend and my hero, he went off and became a Marine! I couldn't have imagined leaving mama's side like that but he was always strong. He loved the A-Team at a time I was watching "Chip&Dale rescue rangers!" I always loved him and admired him and will to my death my loss is indescribable. I only wish I could be there for his mom and Stephen, as well as his sisters who were so much older that I thought of them as movie stars or something. I love you Rosemary and am so sorry

“ To share a memory, wow, how can we share just one memory out of years of Memories. I will sum it up as best as I can. I'm thankful that God let our paths cross. Dean went from stranger to family in a matter of hours. He became my daughter's honorary Uncle and a protector of us both. Dean was a true definition of a friend. I'm thankful for all the laughs and good times. I'm glad I watched his & Kandy's love story unfold and thankful to see his faith & relationship with God. This isn't Goodbye but we'll see you later.
To Kandy, Miss Rosemary & family. I am so sorry for ya'lls loss. I pray for God's loving presence bring ya'll peace now and in all the days ahead.

“ I only spent about 90 minutes of my life around Dean. In that small amount of time I witnessed a man of faith, a strong faith. His bride Kandy also showed faith like one seldom sees. Their love for each other was beautiful under these trying circumstances. All couples should have love this strong. The tremendous outpouring of prayers and love to this family is a gift all should hope will be with each of us when needed. Dean did it his way. He never gave up. I hardly knew you, but I shall never forget you. Rest with the Lord and may the Lord watch over Kandy and your family and friends.

We brought the flags to the VFW, it was our honor. It was 90 minutes of witnessing from both of you, Faith and Love.
