“ Our prayers go out to Shon's wife, children and family. Patrick and Shon went to school together and Patrick says that if anyone could make you laugh, it was Shon. We seen him from time to time and he always had a smile and was asking how the children were doing. My son says that when he came to the school with his daughter, he would always pick him up and play with him too. He had a spirit about him that was rare in this day and time. We are truly sorrow for your loss and we have been praying for your family ever since we learned what happened. To the family, we know as kind and caring he was in life, he is an angel now. May God Bless you all with peace.

“ Brandi I am so thankful to you for making Shon a part of our family. I feel truly blessed to have called him my cousin and I will miss him so bad. My heart is breaking and I wish I could take all the pain away from you, Amyah, and Gage. I have prayed and talked to him every night for the past week because I want him to know that we will not let you and his babies ever go without knowing how loved you all are and that we will be here for y'all until the end of time. I know that big smile is shining down on all of us. He will live with us always in our hearts. Eddie and Bet - you two created one of the most special people that has ever walked this earth. I hope you all and Erika have comfort in knowing how many lives he touched. He was truly a gift on this earth that we were blessed to have for the short time that we did. He will never be forgotten. I love you all so much.

“ Our condolences to Brandi, the kids and the rest of the family. Shon was a great man and we will miss him greatly. He was always smiling and happy. He always showed me the utmost respect and because of that I always had respect for him. We think the world of him as most people that knew him did. They say God takes the good ones when they are young, and often I question why, but he was definitely one of the good ones. We love you Shon.

“ To the family of Eddie Lowe I would like to send my heart-felt condolences. I remember Eddie in High School and how cool he was. He never picked on anyone, he was always well mannered, and was a good athlete from what I can remember. Keep looking to the hills from whence cometh your help and GOD will see you through. Eddie may not be with us physically but God now has an Angel watching over us!

“ Brandi and Family This is so hard to understand. We thought alot of Shon and he was surely a good husband, Dad, and friend to all that knew him. We have been praying for all of you and will continue. Tell his parents that I understand there pain and hope they find peace knowing that Shon would never have wanted them to have a heavy heart but to take all the memories and be glad of the person he was. He would not want to see people and not be able to hug them and give that special smile Thinking of you, Stan and Cheri
