“ I will always remember my Granddaddy Edwin as a great man who had a strong love of God, family and his country. Through all of the years I spent with him and my late Grandmother Louise, I will always have fond memories of good times and laughs shared by all of us. No matter how grim a situation might be, my Grandmother Louise and Granddaddy Edwin always found ways to make us laugh and appreciate all that God has given us. They are both sorely missed, but I thank God every day for having the opportunity to spend time with such wonderful people that I am proud to call family.
