“ To Elizabeth's family ... I know your sadness, your grief at Liz'es leaving you. I'm confident, though, Liz is probably running, skipping, dancing ... just because she CAN now. No longer in a body that became a burden to her spirit. For that, I'm so happy for her. I met Liz, when I was hired to work, front office, at the Russell building in 1987. What a great group of 'womenfolk' I met and worked with there. We remained friends right on, long after we were displaced from the Veteran's Home. We all had nicknames in the administrative offices of the Russell Building. Liz was Loose Liz (please, it was only in fun), Louise was Lousy Louise, Betty Daniel was Betty Boop, Chris Parks was Crummy Chris, and I was Dizzy Dianne. Great times we had the years we were there together. I will miss her in our 'group'. May God give you all comfort as you walk on in your lives.
