“ I will miss my amazing Aunt Buff. When ever we come down from Indy, she always came to visit or invites us out to eat. She would have us over to her house as well. I always loved how she would tell stories and when it was so funny she would laugh so hard she couldn't finish the story. She always told my sisters and i that we are from a line of strong women and to always believe in ourselves and work hard. Until we meet again Aunt Buff, just know that I admired you and I hope to make you proud each and every day.
