

Emma Lou Davidson

September 22, 1906 - August 23, 2008

Graveside services for Emma Lou Fuller Davidson will be conducted Monday, August 25, 2008 at 4 PM in the Baptist Gospel Mission Cemetery. Pastor Loretta Faulk will officiate. Visitation will be Monday, August 25, 2008 from 2:30 until service time in the Baptist Gospel Mission Church. Emma Lou Fuller Davidson, 102 of Gordon, passed away early August 23, 2008. Daughter of the late Charlie Otis Fuller and the late Alley Mae Johnson Fuller, she was a native of Ft. Valley but had lived in Gordon most of her adult life. Widow of Robert Ernest Davidson and preceded in death by her daughter, Ruby Jean Davidson LaFavor and son, Clarence Davidson, she worked many years in the Macon Knitting Mill, Macon Shirt Factory and the Macon Hospital. Survivors include: 9-GC 15-G GC Several GG GC Nieces & Nephews

Tribute Wall

MD

“ We will all miss Ms. Emma. She was such a good friend to Dorothy for so many years. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

Milly & Harry Day - August 25, 2008 at 12:00 AM

KH

“ our deepest sympathy goes out to your family at this time she was a special lady may her memory live on and may god comfort you

Keith and Donna House - August 25, 2008 at 12:00 AM