“ My darling Belle mommy misses you so much .I hope you know how much it hurt me to let you go home to Jesus. Baby you put up a fight to stay here with us but you were so tired and mommy didn't want you to suffer anymore i wanted to be selfish and keep you here with me for i could hold you and love you but i had to put my feelings aside for a minute and give you enough love to let you go be the perfect angel you were meant to be. I hurt so much inside. you are my baby and always will be. I want you to tell jesus to give your mommy enough strenght to get through the next few days because it going to hurt mommy so bad to have to say goodbye to my little girl. Can i ask you to please watch over me and daddy we love you and miss you so much . You will always have a piece of my heart it went with you when you went home. I will love you and have so many wonderful memories of you forever my sweetheart. I will see you again and when i get to heaven with it will be forever and i will never let you go. love you always, mommy

“ Little Timi Annabelle, a Rosebud in our lives, She came to us so early. a tiny Great surprise. I know it's been a struggle for you to gain your strength, but our Prayers are so abundant, and come from far and wide, and if it's Gods desire you'll stay within our lives. A tiny little Rosebud, I know will someday Bloom, into the most Beautiful flower this world has ever seen. I know you'll be a Blossom in the bouquet of our lives, just know that all your family will be right by your side, and know that Nanny loves you a Rosebud in our lives.

“ My precieuse Belle, You were an angel flying too close to the ground. You made such an impact on so many lives in your short time on earth. I am so glad that I had the opportunity to see, touch, feel, hold and kiss you personally. You will be missed as much as if you'd been around for years. I will be looking forward to our 'reunion.'
