“ Uncle Jack was a great man and great uncle. Every time we spoke you always learn something new. He always would tell you like is straight forward weather you liked it or not, that's what I loved about him most. for some reason though in the Hodges family most of the funniest memories always had pain in each memory, not Payne but PAIN!! One thing I will never forget is when he was pumping up a motor grader tire he used a little to much starting fluid. When he lit the tire on fire I literally blew the front side of the tire off the rim ,hit him, and blew him against his truck. Literally he bounced up like it didn't even hurt him and went right back to work. He was tuff as nails. I am truly going to miss him. Love you uncle Jack R.I.P

“ He was a mess, gave me hell all the time, but I'd give anything for him to fuss at me one more time. He loved his family and friends so much and if he loved you you knew it. He may have had a rough exterior but he was a good one.... Please keep our family in your prayers.
