“ It has been a while but you are always in my thoughts. Coiming up on four yrs. We all know feel your presence around is and I'm positive it's you when I see a red bird. Days that are not going well I'll walk out and you are sitting on the railing it makes me feel better. I have loved you forever just because you are not here doesn't mean I stopped...I'll see you again one day. Tell Jill hey and give her a hug from me.....

“ It's me again
I miss you more than I ever thought I would. Sometimes I just need you to talk to. It's not easy seeing someone each day for thirty years and have it end without notice. I love you, until me meet again

“ Jimmy sometimes I just need to talk to you. Today was one of those days. I won't go into details but things have happened I had no control over. I've been praying over the issue for a few weeks now. I will continue to pray for the best out come for all of the people involved. You don't realize how much you will miss someone until they are gone. I still catch myself saying oh when we get home we can ask Daddy. I love you. wish we could have one more good argument..... you'll understand that statement.
