Thank you for sharing this. Jennifer was loved by so many. She was a light in a dark room and her giving nature was like none other. Praying for the family as they have to learn to live in this life without her. She will live forever in the hearts of all those she has touched.

Love always,

“ Jennifer and I conversed a lot because we were both business ed teachers. Of course, we visited each other's classrooms, but my favorite memory was a few years back—the day we first met, actually. It was the beginning of the year, and we had the school safety training. We had to find a good hiding place, so we ducked into my book room. We were prepared with weapons in hand (as they had taught us to do) and we could hear the blanks being fired in the surrounding classrooms/hallway. They never found us or confirmed the drill was over, so we stayed hidden in the closet for quite a long time. While we were hiding, I discovered that Jennifer loved teaching, and loved her students! We will all truly miss her! God bless you all during this difficult time! May He bring you His peace and may you find joy in the precious memories until you meet again!

“ At a time like this, I just don't know the words to use that can express my sincere condolences and heartfelt sympathy to all of Jennifer's family. However, I do want everyone to know that my family and I are praying for strength, comfort and peace for all of the family during this very difficult time.
