“ Tammy and boys, I am saddened to hear of Jimmy's passing. I always thought highly of him. I'll never forget all the fun times and cookouts we had while my Timmy was living. My thoughts and prayers go out to all of you. This ole world has definately lost a good one but our loss is Heaven's gain. I can only imagine the reunion going on up there among Jimmy and his friends!

“Dad always had love for his family, and friends. I absolutely love the cookouts. He loved his farm. Him an mom always working on something up till his passing. If they wasn't doing it me an billy was. I'm gonna cherish all the memories. He taught me so much. No high school diploma or g.e.d he was a flipping genius, practically could build anything with his hands. Love you dad r.i.p

“ I wish I had been able to get to know Jimmy more and listen to stories I'm sure he had to tell about his life. Tammy has been my children's bus driver and they are now 27, 22, & 17. They grew up knowing Tammy. The past 2 years, Tammy and my family have grown closer. We met Jimmy and love them both!

I remember when me & and my youngest, Emily went to go swim. We went to the door, which was already open. Jimmy was sitting there (I think asleep but when we knocked, he acted like he'd been awake). I said, "hey, is Tammy here?" He said, "nah, she went to Gordon." I said, "we were wanting to swim for about an hour if its okay." Jimmy said, "yea that's fine. Y'all come over anytime ya want to swim." He was so sweet! So we went to the pool. It started lightening and thundering about 5 minutes later. We both jumped out of the pool and hung out floats up (we was too scared to worry about getting them). Emily ran to the car and I went to the open door and told Jimmy, "well we're leaving, the lightning scared the shit out of us." He laughed and said, "I was wonder when yall was gonna go. I'd seen storms were coming on the news." I thanked him over & over for allowing us to come swim. And he reassured me that it was fine any time we wanted to come swim. Emily & I will never forget that. He was so kind to us.

We love Mr. Jimmy just like we love Mrs. Tammy. I'm only sorry that we didn't get the time to know him more. You will be missed Mr. Jimmy!! And rest knowing that Tammy has friends who will help her in any way we can. See you later Mr. Jimmy. ❤️
