“ Words can't describe the hole left in my heart now that he's gone. I will cherish the memories of the few days y'all spent with us in the mountains, fulfilling one of his last requests. He told me "no tears", and I'm trying to do as he asked. RIP Joey. I love you!

“ I've never me Joey, however I've had the pleasure of knowing his son Jarrod. If he was even half the man Jarrod described the world is a worse place without him. Well wishes and prayers to the entire family.
