“ Mr. Joe was an icon at Engelhard. When the Ussery family members began our careers at the chalkmine, Mr. Joe was always there. He was so encouraging and smiling all the time. He was a very special person. He will be missed by his loving family and by the community of friends he loved. Our love and prayers are with the family.

What can I say that hasn't been said? Mr. Joe was always kind and greeted everyone with lovingly concern. I never heard him say anything bad about anyone, nor have I ever not seen him when he didn't have a smile on his face. We need more Mr. Joe Day's in this world.
