“ To Karen's husband, children, and grandchildren: You all are in our thoughts and prayers. My husband and I worked with Karen years ago. She was a truly sweet and caring person and we are very sad about the news of her passing. Please find comfort in the love of Christ and in knowing Karen is in her forever home, Heaven.

“ My condolences to Karen's Dixon's family and friends no words here can describe what they are feeling now just know that she is in a better place. I grew up in the same neighborhood that Karen Sherry and Shannon grew up in and she always watched after us. I know Karen will still be watching over all of us. I know Karen will always be missed I send my condolences and prayers for her family and friends.
