“ I have so many great memories of the times we all shared in caring for Katie. While she clearly went through some difficult times, she always did it with amazing strength, courage, and resolve - and always surrounded by, and comforted in the love and care of amazing parents and grandparents. Thank you all, and thank you, Katie, for your effort and commitment to help other children, even as you faced your own challenges. And thank you all for pushing me to be a better version of myself, and for including me in your journey. We wish you much peace in love and good memories.
