“ I lived with the hastys for a few few years. Mr. Hasty was an an amazing man that I took care of until his departure into the heaven for which god was waiting for him. he was one amazing man and a man that suffered but yet did everything to mamke everyone else feel comfortable and loved. Elverne, his daughtger has gone one to live a full healthy life. god bless you all and no matter what is said about me, I will stil love this family who gave me a home and a family. GOD help you all and don't for get to bless those that are in in great needm such as my family and my self. I love and you and god bless u all. I desperately need help. I am no longer in everything that would cause me to live under a bridge or do severe drugs and it would be nice that you if able to help me with. god bless you all and my god bless you all. with great love, bobbie finley
