“Babe I'll always miss you 😭 this one is taking a lot out of me! Just thinking about our kids growing without you here with us and all this I got to do without you it's eating at me. I know you were hurting and tired and your resting now. And I also know you know our kids will be taken care of no matter what. So as hard as this is to say for me Rest High babe and continue to watch over us! Until we meet again. I love you 💜
