“ Sherri, Uncle Mac is suffering no more. He fought up until the very end. Hold the memories that you have of him and Aunt Saralyn close to your heart. They were great parents to you and loved you very much.

“ Sherri, Your Mom and Dad were there for me years ago when I needed a place to stay until I could find an apartment in Macon. I have always appreciated their sharing their home. At the time I didn't realize the sacrifice they were making. After I had children of my own I came to appreciate them more and more especially since you were a small baby and they gave me your room in their little house. Always cherish the love they had for you.
