

Margaret Snider Lavender

June 8, 1950 - January 28, 2023

Margaret Anne Snider Lavender, 72, of Williamsport, TN, formerly of Gordon, GA, passed away at home surrounded by family after a brief illness on January 28th 2023. Born in Louisville, GA, she later married her devoted husband, Edwin Lavender, of Gordon, GA, in 1975. The desire to bring quality care and compassion to those in need led to her obtaining her nursing degree in 1980. In 1981, she and her husband started a successful in-home skilled nursing business, caring for both adult and pediatric patients across the state of Georgia. Margaret always strived for the best care possible for her patients. She played an integral role in legislating for home care changes involving Medicaid and was well-respected by her friends, family, and colleagues for her endless efforts. Her entrepreneurial skills expanded as she began the very first Hospice Care in Wilkinson County in 1995.

Margaret, along with her husband, Edwin, moved to Williamsport, TN, in 2011. She is a member of Mission Chapel Baptist Church. Her hobbies included gardening, canning, and farming on her country estate.

She was a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother. Margaret was the daughter of the late George Ernest Snider of Gibson, GA, and Madge Walden Marchman of Milledgeville, GA. She is survived by her husband, Edwin Lavender; three sons, George Lavender (Dalia) of Waleska, GA, Kenny Sewell of Parkersburg, WV, Kevin Sewell (Wendy) of Gray, GA; five daughters, Kim Christian (Pat) of Macon, GA, Shawn Hamrick (Mike) of Gray, GA, Dawn Griffin of Gray, GA. Tonya Cason (William) of Macon, GA, and Ann Marie Chalker (John) of Ailey, GA.; many loving grand and great-grandchildren.

Funeral services for Margaret Anne Snider Lavender will be held at the Chapel of Williams Funeral Home of Gordon on Wednesday, February 1st, 2023 at 2pm. Interment will follow at Ramah Cemetery. The family will receive visitors Wednesday, February 1, 2023 from 1pm until the service hour.

“ Where do I begin.. Margaret and her husband Edwin were friends with my husband and so that's how I became to know them. She was a beautiful soul. She always put a smile on my face when I seen her. She had a kind heart and was a God loving Christian lady. I looked up to Margaret. She was such a great wife. Most days that I seen her outside of church, she was canning food trying to give me pointers. I love you Margaret and I know that you're up there with Jesus. I will miss your beautiful self.

“ To Margaret,
you were always there when I needed work, all I had to do was call.
You helped me save my home. I will be forever grateful to you. You provided a place to stay when I was too tired to make it home. It seemed you loved all pediatric client and tried your best to get them care. Now God has provided a resting place for you, in heaven. I will miss you, there will never be anyone like you. May God Bless the family and Mr. Lavender.
