“ Brother Matt was a great guy and will be sorely missed. The display of love at the funeral, trip to the cemetary, and graveside were a testimony to the life he lived. It was an honor to do Matt's service and I'll never forget him. May God be with all of his family and friends in the days to come. This young man was really special. I'll see you again one day Bro. “ I cannot believe I am signing your guest book. This is definitely a goodbye too soon. Life is short enough as it is, and at only 28, yours ended before you even got started good. I am sure everybody has had their moments with you that they can remember. I will never forget Saturday night in Dublin when you were telling us that you ran 3rd in your heat race. You had that big ol smile on your face. We knew life could not get any better than that for you. Jeff can remember when you brought your race car to him to work on, that your seat was screwed to the frame with sheet metal screws. He made you redo it the correct way so that it would be safe. To Rachel, you were her brother (she claims everybody she loves as one of her family members of some sort). Every time she saw you, she ran and grabbed you liked she had not seen you in years. To Lacy, you were Big Sexy, just as care free and youthful as she is. You were, without a doubt, one of a kind, and without a doubt, irreplaceable. You definitely left a mark on the hearts that knew you and you will never be forgotten. Just about every race track story that is told, your name is mentioned. Until we meet again.....

“ It is hard to say goodbye to such a good friend. Thanks for all the good times. Christian and I will never forget you. I have bottled up, unknowingly what would be, the last moments we had -- Saturday night at the Pilot Station, you were standing there propped up on the race car trailer drinking a Yoo-Hoo and eating a candy bar, you were on the phone and you had that grin (that up to no good grin) on your face. Saturday nights will never be the same without Big Z. You will be missed.

“ Matt will be missed by so many. You don't ever realize the kind of impact a person makes on your life until they are gone... Matt was truly an angel from God! He had a heart of gold. In the racing world we may compete, cut down & complain but in all seriousness... we are family and Matt was truly loved everyone! He rooted for Cory while he was sick and was there to be in our picture for Cory's 1st win. When he ever knew some was in need... he was the first to show up and try to help. We will never forget you Big Z and we are all so blessed to have known you. I know you are in Victory Lane dancing with Jesus now... the race goes on with you, keep helping us when you can sweetie! RIP... Love & Miss Ya Matt ;)

“ Sending my condolences to the family of Matt Wood aka Big Z! As many of you know Matt was a very special person-- he was always so friendly and considerate. He had the best personality-- which allowed him to never meet a stranger. He would give you the shirt off his back if you needed it...that was just Big Z, caring, always smiling from ear to ear, ready to race-- full throttle:) I am praying for your strength during this difficult time of need. I miss and love you Big Z! See you soon Buddy! #49 in victory lane with Jesus!:)

“ i don't even know where to start with matt, he was...truly an amazing guy. yeah he was aggravating at times, with all his flirting and stuff(: thinking back on the memories i shared with him always puts a smile on my face, just as he always did, especially when i was in a bad mood. it's not gone be the same around jones county anymore without his happy self. it just broke my heart when i heard what had happened. he was so young. it makes me so sad to think that he's actually gone. he helped me through alot while i was growing up. more than he'll ever know. matt...shrek(: i love you and i will miss you every single day of the rest of my life!. you were an inspiration to me. may you be blessed by God up there in heaven. i'll meet you up there one day in victory lane(: i love you matt!.

“ My prayers are with each of you, family and friends. I was Matt's neighbor. Sure won't be the same around here. He Only Took My Hand One day while you remember me My voice you will hear You will look around But I will not appear I will say: Hi , you've got to listen, You got to understand I didn't leave you... I am just inside you... When I called out in pain that day, The moment that I died, God reached down and took my hand, And pulled me to His side. He pulled me up and saved me From the misery and pain. My body was hurt so badly, I could never be the same. My search is really over now, I've found happiness within, All the answers to my empty dreams And all that might have been. I love you and miss you so dearly, And I'll always be nearby. My body's gone forever, But my spirit and love will never die. And so, you must go on now, And live, and understand.. . God did not take me from you, He only took my hand. And I will be here always for you Waiting and loving you..

“ Matt was the kindest, sweetest young man i have ever met. He will be truly missed by everyone who new him. What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you passed, but that you lived.
