“ My earliest memory of Minne Lee was when we were both very young. I was ten years younger, but I remember going to her home near Milledgeville with my parents to spend the day with Minnie Lee and her parents Uncle Wesley and Aunt Ida Mae. I have spoken with her several times in the last few years and she shared a picture of my grandmother Mary "Mollie" Ward Manning Bell.

“ Will miss my friend and neighbor. We shared a lot of conversations and she always asked how everyone in her church family was doing. She suffered so long with her different illnesses but now, thankfully, she is pain free and resting in the arms of Jesus Christ her Savior!
