“ I am still in shock you are gone!! Sending my thoughts and prayers to your family, Randy, and friends. We had some fun times together that I will always cherish! I hate we haven't talked in a few years! You wore your heart on your sleeve and was always willing and ready to help anyone in need! I will miss your smiling face and the hugs you gave each time we reconnected!!! Fly high beautiful lady!!

“ I'm still in disbelief that you're gone. It's hard to find the words, I would love to say. I have so much guilt, because we never got together and catch up. You are such a beautiful person, inside and out. My thoughts and prayers are with your family. Fly high with the angels and your Mama. Class of 2001 forever! ♥♥♥

“ I hadn't seen Pam in years. But I remember her as being a sweet and kind young lady. We chatted online a few years back and it was nice to hear from her. She was talented and so very creative.

We met at church. She was in the youth group at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church. Dennis and I enjoyed several years with the group. Pam was always cheerful, helpful, kind and eager to learn about our Lord and Savior. I am certain she is sitting at His feet singing His praises. Chris, our prayers go out to you and all of Pam's family. Rest peacefully sweet girl.

“ Pamela, I have known you all your life. I have gotten to know you better since your Dad and I have been together. I never thought in a million years that I would be talking to you and then an hour later you had gained your angel wings. Rest in peace and fly high with the angels. Bill, Chris and family, I am so sorry for your loss. My condolences to you all. Pamela, you will always hold a special place in my heart and you will never be forgotten. It was not goodbye it was see you later.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Pamela's family. I think we're all still in shock, it's hard to believe someone so full of life like Pam is just gone in the blink of an eye. I know she had some kind of reunion with her Mama. This isn't Goodbye, just we'll see you later Pam.
