“ When I think of my Aunt Patsy I think of the James Taylor song ,”You’ve got a friend.”. Patsy was the real deal.If one of her friends or family members needed someone to sit with them during a hospital stay or surgery or just needed someone to talk too,Patsy would be that person.She was there for her sisters and many more people.Let there be no misunderstanding though if you needed a little dose of honesty ,in your face talking too; she could do that too. Patsy was one of the few people that on 2 different times knocked me down a notch or two.I loved her for that but I also respected her for saying what she believed,because she was right.Mike and Kris we grieve with you and will always cherish your mom and Wendell.God Bless. Larry and Elaine Jones.
