Rebecca had not one single selfish bone in her body. She was one of my best friends and always there. Praying for her family. Take your rest now sweet angel. Your legacy of the beautiful, caring heart you had will continue forever and ever.

I coached both Rebecca and Rachel on my softball team, many years ago.. Two of the sweetest and well mannered girls I have ever had the priviledge to know. Always willing to help in any way. And, always had a smile on their face. They were a joy, beyond measure, to coach. May God be with all the family.

“ One of my sisters, my first babies, and best friends...It is hard to fathom how heartbroken I am to be facing life without Rebecca. I used to "fuss" at her to take better care of herself, to be more outspoken, but all she would say is "It's okay Beff, I'm fine, really." Then she would say she knew if she needed any backbone that she knew I had enough for all of us. If anyone on this earth could have been perfect, it truly was Rebecca. Her light was so bright, yet it continues to shine through her legacy, especially her sweet babies. I swear that with every breath in my body, that they will ALWAYS know their Mama and how much she loved, lived, and breathed for them, Matthew, her family, and friends. She was beautiful. She truly had that agape love and she shared it every single day. Rebecca loved to sing, to smile, (even when she didn't try unlike her "extra" sister) & she was the brightest star in any room. No matter what hand Rebecca was dealt, there was no negativity. She held the hand of our daddy (she was a daddy's girl!!) as he took his last breath, and was with our Big Mama during her last minutes on this earth. I love you, Rebecca. You are my hero and I can only wish that I have a little bit of you in me. Rest easy baby sister. Until we meet again.

“ I met Rebecca at red lobster. I was just a Midwest transplant to GA for school. She immediately took me under her wing and showed me the ropes. She was with ever meaning possible a friend. She was selfless to a fault, nurturing, caring, funny, wise beyond her years. We passed the time talking about life after ABAC. She was the first person I saw after I returned from my overseas tour. Lol she was the first person to literally teach me about smart phones and apps. Hahaha she was working at AT&T at the time and she would just laugh at me when I couldn't get it. But she was patient and unconditionally loving in everything. This news breaks my heart. The world lost an angel and heaven gained one. I know she will be looking down and out on everyone because that's just what she does. Love you!!!

“ Years of shared projects, conversations, and challenges built more than a working relationship—they built a friendship. 🌸

Rebecca, was there through changing teams, busy seasons, tight deadlines—and always with humour and grace. 🌹

We leaned on each other more than we probably realised at the time. And looking back, I see how deeply she shaped the spirit of pinegate. ❤️

It's hard to imagine work without our dearest leader She was part of the rhythm of the office, the voice of reason in chaos, the steady presence when things got tough. 🕊️

I 'd like to take the time to be thankful / grateful for the dedication, laughter, and the countless ways—big and small— she made a difference/ impact to all she came in contact with. 😊

She didn't just do her job. She built a legacy of consistency, support, love , and quiet leadership. 🥰

She'll be immensely missed
Pinegate will never be quite the same without her. ☐

“ Rebecca was truly one of a kind. Always smiling, always happy, and always willing to do anything for anyone. I never once saw her mad—just full of love and light. I remember when you first started at Pinegate, those were the days. Your big smile and even bigger heart will never be forgotten. You will be deeply missed, but your spirit will live on forever in everyone you touched. Love Maurice
