Tribute Wall

“ Rhonda we have been friends for so long. You were more like family. We had some good times together. I am going to miss you my friend. You have left behind so many people that love you so much. You have left behind a man that loved you with everything he has. And two beautiful daughters that loves you so much. It is hurting us all to say goodbye but we know you were tired of being sick and in pain. Your body is not aching anymore and you have a whole new body. We might cant see you but you are with us. Tell all our love ones hey and we love them. I am not going to say bye. I am going to say until I see you again. Love you girl.
