“ Wanda and family - we thought the service was so sweet and moving and glad we were able to be there. There was no doubt his family loved him dearly and he taught them many good things. We would be so honored to have our grandchildren speak about us that way when we leave this earth for a better place. You and he created a special family and you should be proud. We look forward to seeing y'all during Christmas and hope to keep in touch. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Love, Glenn and Sally
