“ Good ole Robert...what a great guy. He was a true southern gentleman, country boy, and had a kind soul. Miss you buddy. I remember when I sat next to him at work for years. He would slide back in his chair and ask me, "hey, did you see where the Bulldawgs just..." He loved to chat about UGA football and kept up with it as much as I do, probably more than I do. He was loved by many and was loved by my wife Tiffany and I. Rest in peace brother. -Matthew Vining

“ Robert and my son, Josh Darity, were best friend going through school. Robert was in & out of my house constantly through those years. He was like one of my own. My heart-felt prayers are for his family. Know I loved him too.

“ Nancy, I (Janice) wrote this poem for a dear friend when he passed away suddenly. It helped me a lot, I hope it helps you as much. A Mother should never out live her children. God Bless you and help you through this rough time in your life.

*If I had known the last time I saw you,
Would be the last time I'd see you.
I would have lingered a little longer,
And would have looked back as I walked away.*

*If I had known the last time we talked,
Would be the last time we'd talk.
I would have listened more intently,
And hung on every word.*

*If I had known the last time we hugged,
Would be the last time we'd hug.
I would have held on a little tighter and
A whole lot longer.*

*If I had known the last time we kissed,
Would be the last time we'd kiss.
I would have kissed both cheeks,
And I would have done it over & over again.*

*If I had known the last time I looked into your eyes
Would be the last time I'd look into your eyes.
I would have looked a little deeper and
Never looked away.*

*If I had known the last time we said, "I love you",
Would be the last time we'd say, "I love you".
I would have said it with much more passion,
And I not taken it for granted that you knew.*

*But I did not know,
That our last would be our last.
For God knew, that if I knew,
I would have never let you go.*

*In God's arms now but forever in our heart!

“Robert has been my neighbor for almost two years, I was going through a hard divorce and he cheered me up every time I needed. He was there...with Marta, his house mate, to give me a hug a word anything he could give me to help me keep going. He was a good soul, good culture, nice company, nice person, well manned, generous, he adored his sons, he wanted to give them more in time and money but life doesn't always goes as we wish.

He missed them deeply. He was a very hard working guy, but two jobs weren't enough to cover his costs, I lent him a good amount of money to help him, I totally trusted him and I was sure he would have paid me back...now I know he won't, but the saddest part of this is not the money I lost, even if I badly need them....the saddest part is that this planet lost an awesome human being.

I send a huge hug to each of his sons and I pray that the universe will give them the necessary strength to survive and thrive in this life even without their father.
