“ Mrs. Mary Ivey, Ronnie, & family. We were so sorry to hear of Mr. Jack's passing. We had many good times at Thompson's Cove with him. He would always pull up a chair and chat with us for a while. He never failed to ask How's everything in McIntyre? He will be missed by many, especially you, his family. Hold on to the many great memories, they will bring you comfort in days to come. Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. It is our prayer that God hold you in the palm of His hand and guide you as only He can do.

“ Ms. Thompson and Ronnie: We were so sorry to hear of your loss. We have missed seeing Mr. Jack over the last several months since he has been so sick. We have considered him a friend over the years of eating fish with ya'll. I know you loved him and will miss him. We loved him and will miss him, too. God will help you go through this valley as you can have the assurance he is not suffering any more. God bless you all.

“ Mr. Jack was just a wonderful man. He will be greatly missed! I really enjoyed those days of having him sit next to us at the restaurant and carry on a conversation with My uncle James Thompson from Cochran. As a nurse, I got more familiar with him and his wife Mary Ivy. They were the greatest! I will forever miss Mr. Jack. My most heartfelt condolences go out to this wonderful family! ”

“ We only had the privilege of knowing Mr. Jack for a short while. He visited us in our new home and climbed all the way to the top of the stairs. Earlier that season we enjoyed feeding an alligator with the help of his pocket knife to cut some food for the creature. He struck us as a very kind man and hard worker. Our deepest sympathies to the family. ”
