

Ruby Mathis Brantley

January 5, 1938 - November 8, 2022

Ruby Grace Mathis Brantley left this world to take part in her heavenly mansion on November 8, 2022 at her home in McIntyre, Georgia. At the time of her departure she was 84 years of age.

Ruby was born in Laurens County on January 5, 1938 to James Benjamin and Mavis Lee Mathis. She lived most of her adult life in Wilkinson County with her loving husband of 65 years, Charles Wayne Brantley, Sr. She is a retiree from Central State Hospital in Baldwin County and an active member of Laurel Branch Church where she participated regularly in teaching Sunday School and worshipping with family.

Mrs. Ruby was preceded in death by her parents and her brothers: Wendell Mathis, Robert Mathis and Billy Mathis.

She is survived by her husband, Wayne, her daughter: Eleanor (Jeffery) Angles of McIntyre, her sons: Charles (Beverly) Brantley of McIntyre, Roger Earl (Shannon) Brantley of Gray, her sisters: Louise (Stan) Bagwell of NC, Joyce (Bill) Taylor of Sparta, and one brother: Jimmy (Dottie) Mathis of Buford, 8 grandchildren, 7 great-grandchildren and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

There will be a memorial service held at Laurel Branch Church on Thursday, November 10, 2022 at 3:00 PM. Visitation with friends and family will follow.

Williams White Columns Funeral Home of Gordon is in charge of arrangements.
