“ Debbie, I am so sorry for your loss. I know how close you were to your mother and I hope the fact that you were so close will bring you comfort and peace. You have many good memories to make you smile through your tears. You also have a wonderful husband to stand close by your side during all this and you will draw comfort from him. I have the comfort of knowing that your mother has now joined mine in Heaven and that they are both now taking care of our precious Angel Faith. I love you. You are in our prayers.

“Debbie, I am very sorry for your loss. I know how much you are hurting, but just remember God is there for you and your Mom. Losing a mother is one of the worst feelings there can be and it takes a lot of prayer and time to be able to make it through the hard time ahead. But you are strong and can do it, Know that Jesse and I are praying for you and if you need anything let us know. We love you (Me especially, since we've been through a lot together) Take care and I know God is watching out .
