“ Beth, I am sorry and I love you so much. My prayers are with you and your family over there. Always know your family over here is always here for you and we love you. And everytime you see a rainbow like you did that day know your baby is with you and at peace. My favorite verse in the bible helps me to believe this. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. (Rev 21:4)

“ I never met Sam but feel like I know him as a young child. I am a friend of his Mom who speaks about both of her sons fondly. Beth has told me stories of Sam who was an escape artist as a child and looking for him when he went missing on a daily basis, either to visit his Aunt Carol or Uncle Harold, or just to hide waiting to be found. Come on we all have one in the family. My heart goes out to his entire family. God Bless you in your time of grief.

“ Beth and family. We are so sorry for your loss. As having their only child go home to be with God it is a blessing and a LOT of pain. We have talked so much about your two sons I feel like I know them. Our prayers and thoughts will be with all of you. Beth, May God bless you and help you through the hard times now. Just remember you will be together again one day. Be strong and know we are here for you. Sherron
