“ I remember the first time I met Shane, I was probably 9 years old, my Uncle Pat and this other young man came over to talk to my parents. I remember sitting in the living room floor just admiring this handsome young man, not realizing he is a cousin of mine. I knew my Uncle Pat was my Uncle but I had no idea Shane was my cousin. Fast forward a year or so, he moves down to Hobbs New Mexico and starts working in the meat department of the grocery store we shopped at, anyway when he was there he would ALWAYS wrap up bones and give them to my mom so she could give them to our dog. As of February 13, he was met by my mom, his dad, several of his Uncles and two nephews among other family members. I will always remember the first time I met my cousin for the first time.
