“ Junior & Family, There are no words to say to make the pain get better or furthermore go away. Timmy was a great man and so full of love. We are so sorry for th loss of him in your family. I hope things will get better one day but for now all everyone can do is pray and live day to day.

“ JR, Angie, BETH and Leigh, I really don't know what to say at this time because i too am suffering the loss of Timmy as well as my own precious Kandice.I really don't know how we are going to make it through this except by the grace of god. Timmy was a good boy and he loved people and let them know it he was not ashamed to say ILOVE YOU AUNT TOOTSIE and i always told him i love you too Timmy.JR, when you have time and feel up to it read this bible verse, it has helped me some, MARK 13:24-26 I LOVE YA'LL. Always TOOTSIE

“ Junior and Aunt Nell I'm so sorry to here of your lossess. No words can soothe the pain in the hearts you all feel right now , but the power in Jesus Christ hands can and will always mend the heart. Take your burdens to the foot of the Cross and let Jesus have them he gave his life for your burdens he feels the pain your feeling but through him only can the pain be gotten rid of. Love little Grady

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for the loss of your son, grandson, brother, & friend. I didn't know Timothy, but his family the Grimsley's & Crutchfield's are on both sides of my family, Livingston & Green. In the Bible, Matthew 28:20b God said LO, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. He is 'Awesome'.
For comfort & strength read, Pslam 18:2; Isaiah 41:10. In Matthew 5:4, He says, Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. I pray God will comfort your hearts, in the days to come. Love & Prayers, Geneva
