“ My sincerest condolences to the family. My mother-in-law, Dot Brewer, was also a member of the Gordon Widows Club and she and Ms. Trilby were close friends. I hope they've been reunited in heaven.

“ First time I met Mrs Trilby she was wearing this beautiful bonnet. She had been to a ladies meeting. She was a true southern belle. She was strutting that bonnet like a beauty queen. She was so friendly and kind. She will surely be missed by all

“ I was saddened to hear of my Aunt Trilby's passing. She was always sweet and caring and kept a good attitude in the face of adversity. I know her children and grandchildren will greatly miss her. Maybe now she is reunited with my mom, Iris Hearn, and her brother Bill. Our prayers are with the family.
