“ My cornerstone, there's 4 of y'all, I've almost lost all of y'all, I have one left. I miss you, think of you everyday. So lost without you. I think almost everyone is. Although my missing you isn't attached to your wallet like most of the others, maybe I shouldn't say that, but I know you always knew. Your always with me, always and forever, infinityI really hope you found the peace and rest you deserve. I love you brother.
