“ Bunny, We are going to miss you very much. You never knew just how much you meant to all of us, so I am telling you now. You were the strongest, bravest, most wonderful caring person I ever knew. I know you went to where you were going even before we got to the hospital. We will meet you there one day. In the meantime your cats and dogs will be taken care of. I pray I will not be selfish and wish I could see you and talk to you. Till we meet again. Always Marie
